Company Statement:

Further to the completion of the one-time, limited monetisation of a small portion of the promoter's personal shareholding, the Company confirms that the proceeds from the sale have been utilized for repayment of debt, interest and charges thereon and the remainder will be used for payment of applicable taxes pertaining to the aforesaid transactions in due course.

Following the repayment of the debt, all promoter-level share pledges aggregating to approximately 3.93% of the Company's total equity have been fully released. The promoter group continues to hold 34.6% in Ola Electric.

Ola Electric remains focused on building a globally competitive, India-first electric mobility and clean energy company.
